

CENTRECOURT DEVELOPMENTS ANNOUNCES ACQUISITION OF 64-70 SHUTER STREET

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TORONTO, NOVEMBER 15, 2013 – CentreCourt has announced today the acquisition of 64-70 Shuter Street located in Downtown Toronto at the intersection of Shuter and Church.

The current four 3-storey mixed use buildings will be redeveloped to a 24-storey high-rise condominium complex. Designed by the award-winning team of Page + Steele / IBI Group and Cecconi Simone, the site is within a 5 minute walk to major amenities such as the TTC, Toronto Eaton Centre, St. Michaels Hospital and Ryerson University.

Sales are anticipated to begin in early 2014 with occupancy in 2017.

CentreCourt Developments is a high-rise condominium developer focused on development located in close proximity to Toronto's major amenities, rapid transit network and employment areas. We currently have four residential condominium projects in development throughout downtown Toronto, collectively representing nearly 2,000 homes and over 1.3 million square feet.
